Jackson Ward, when seen last hight in regard to the foregoing, said:

'I am a very liberal-minded man in re-gard to matters of this kind. I believe that the working men of the city should have somewhere to take a glass of beer on the only day that they have. The lataking their beer once or twice a day and it goes hard with them not to have it. Sunday is the only day that the laborers have to themselves, and they like to take their wives and children out for or on their return, they sometimes like to drop into some quiet place and take a Sandwich and glass of beer. There can be no harm in this, and I think it ought to be that way.

"In New Jersey the saloons are open on Sunday and the cities of that State, and other States where the same course is pursued, are as quiet as in the cities where the strictest Sunday law is observed.

I am thoroughly in favor of arresting and prosecuting any man who gets drunk and misbehaves himself at any time, whether on Sunday or week days, but I believe that the bar-keepers of our city are discreet and will not sell liquor to any one who has imbibed too freely. CHIEF HOWARD SILENT.

He Will Take as His Bride Miss Peirce of Laucaster.

For several months past rumor has said that Rev. William Meade Clark, of St. Jame's Episcopal church, in this city, would soon be wedded, but it was only yesterday that this report was found to be true and that before long the parishioners of St. Jame's church will have the pleasure of welcoming a bride in their midst, who, will be no less a person than Miss Mary Alice Peirce, the beautiful and intellectual dauchter of Mr. and Mrs. It. T. Peirce, of Lancaster county, Va. She is the niece of Mr. A. D. Tapscott, of Fredericksburg, with whom she spendsmuch of her time, and has frequently visited Richmond as the guest of Mrs. J.
